Windsor, October 22.

THE following Addreſs from the Borough of Denbigh, &c. was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Robinſon Lytton, Eſq; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Boroughs of Denbigh, Ruthin and Holt.

May it pleaſe Your Sacred Majeſty,

THE Terms on which Your Majeſty has told Your Parliament a Peace may be made, ſo fully anſwer all the Ends of Your Treaties and Alliances, are ſo honourable and advantageous to Your own Kingdoms, ſo grateful to every Heart, which is entirely Engliſh, and ſo ſuitable to the reſt of Your Majeſty's glorious and juſt Character, that we cannot tell which to admire moſt, Your extraordinary Wiſdom and Steadineſs in Procuring, or Your great Condeſcenſion and Goodneſs in Communicating them to Your People.

We have, not without ſome degree of Indignation, ſeen thoſe Allies and thoſe Subjects who lie under the ſtricteſt Ties of Amity and Duty, and who owe moſt of their preſent Grandeur to Your unparallell'd Generoſity and Bounty, with united Envy and concerted Malice, endeavouring to obſtruct thoſe prudent Negotiations You have enter'd into for the concluding a general Peace.

Were the greateſt Inſtances of Friendſhip and Favour, of Protection and Aſſiſtance, capable of making proper Impreſſions on the Princes and States whoſe Titles and Dominions are ſo much increas'd by them, they could not chuſe but join with us in rejoycing to ſee Your Majeſty the Umpire of Europe, nor could they doubt but the Ballance of Power would be duly fixed, when the Scales are held in ſo Juſt and Upright a Hand.

We, for our Parts, humbly beg of Your Majeſty to proceed in this good Work, the happy Concluſion of which, we truly Long for; and that Your Majeſty may enjoy an uninterrupted Share of thoſe Bleſſings You are procuring for Your People, we earneſtly pray that the God of Peace, who has abated the Pride and aſſwaged the Malice of Your declared Enemies, would, in his Mercy, vouchſafe alſo to confound the Devices of Your pretended Friends.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Genoa, Octob. 9. N. S. The Britiſh Conſul here, has receiv'd Advice of the Ceſſation of Arms by Sea and Land, agreed on between Her Majeſty and the Crown of France, with Orders to take care that the ſaid Ceſſation be duly obſerved by all Ships that ſhall come to theſe Parts. The like Directions are ſent to thoſe reſiding at Leghorn and Naples. On Tueſday laſt the Superbe arrived here in ſix Days from Barcelona, and is to Sail for Port Mahon with the Britiſh Letters, as ſoon as they come in. They write from Spain, that General Wezel continues the Blockade of Girona, the Garriſon and Inhabitants of which Place are in great Diſtreſs for want of Proviſions.

Dantzick, Octob. 19. N. S. This Day General Kibinski went from hence to Marienburg, to review ſome Troops, with which he is ordered, by the Great General, to take poſſeſſion of Elbing, the Muſcovites having given notice, that they are ready to evacuate that Place, as ſoon as the Poles appear. The Prince of Courland is returned hither, having been, as is ſuppoſed, Incognito at Berlin. We learn by Letters from Lemberg, that a Turkiſh Bey had been ſent there by the Port, to examine whether the Muſcovites had performed the Articles of their Treaty, in relation to Poland, and that he was return'd homewards very well ſatisfy'd with the Informations he had receiv'd from the General of the Crown. The Bey brought an Account there, of a great Revolution which hath lately happened in Perſia, the Sophi having been dethron'd by his younger Brother, and forc'd to take refuge in an Iſland belonging to the Grand Signor, who is reſolved to take his part againſt his rebellious Subjects.

Hanover, October 21. N. S. Laſt Sunday the Prince of Bevern was married, at Brunſwick, to the Princeſs Antonia, third Daughter of Prince Lewis of Wolfenbuttel, and Siſter to the Empreſs. The Wedding was private, contrary to the uſual Method of that Court on the like Occaſions. His Electoral Highneſs being now at Hitzaker, within a League of Gohre, two Deputies ſent to him by the City of Hamburg are gone thither. Letters from Koningsberg bring an Account, that the Czar's Frigats have taken ſome ſmall Swediſh Veſſels, and that the Muſcovite Army, conſiſting of Fifteen thouſand Men, which was encamped between Wybourg and Kexholm, had advanced a good way into the Country, and forced the Swedes to retire to Carelie, but, for want of neceſſary Subſiſtance, were obliged to return to their Camp. A conſiderable Number of Engliſh Horſes for the uſe of King Auguſtus, have lately paſſed through this Place, towards Dreſden.

Berlin, October 22. N. S. The King having ſome time ago appointed Commiſſioners to examine what Deſolation has been made by the Plague in Pruſſia, and to find out means of repairing the Loſſes his Country had ſuſtained; Count Alexander Dhona, Preſident of the Commiſſion, is come hither to give his Majeſty an Account of what Progreſs they have made in the Matter referred to them. Count Wartemberg, late Great Chambellan, was Buried laſt Saturday in the Reformed Parochial Church, with great Pomp. Yeſterday one of Her Majeſty's Meſſengers arrived here, and this Day he proceeded towards Dantzick.

Whereas a Letter dated October the 20*th*, 1712. and ſubſcribed S. D. has been ſent by the Penny-Poſt to one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: If the Perſon who ſent the ſaid Letter will come to the Office of the Secretary of State, to whom it was directed, he ſhall have all fitting Protection and Encouragement.

The Receivers for the 1,800,000 l. give Notice, That they will begin to deliver out the Tickets (in exchange for their Receipts) on Monday next, the 27*th Inſtant, at Mercer's Hall; where Attendance will be given daily, from* 9 in the Morning till 4 in the Afternoon. The Drawing of the ſaid Lottery will begin on Friday the 20*th of November.*
